

Media release Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA):

Oepfelbaum IT Management joins the SSPA as a new partner member

The Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA) welcomes Oepfelbaum IT Management as a new partner member. This brings the SSPA's network to a total of 49 members from the entire value chain, from issuers, trading platforms and the buy-side to brokers and partners.

Zurich – 9 July 2024. Since its foundation in 2001, Oepfelbaum IT Management has been supporting clients in the Swiss financial industry as a banking technology expert in all areas of digital transformation. The Zurich-based consulting firm focuses on the expansion and renewal of trading and core banking systems, the implementation of digital distribution channels, the application of ML and data engineering in banking as well as the integration of internal and external applications into the existing system environment of its clients.

Marcus Post, Head Trading & Risk at Oepfelbaum IT Management, on the new membership of the SSPA: “We at Oepfelbaum are looking forward to becoming part of the SSPA. We would like to contribute our expertise in the technology sector from the Swiss financial industry to the Structured Products industry and use the exchange with industry representatives profitably for the further development of the market.”

SSPA currently has 49 members across the entire value chain

Numbering 49 members, the SSPA represents the interests of the market’s key participants, which together account for more than 95 percent by volume of Structured Products in Switzerland. SSPA President Georg von Wattenwyl on the new partner member: “We are delighted to welcome Oepfelbaum IT Management as a new member of the SSPA. The expertise gained in the area of digital transformation will significantly enrich our industry.”
