Media release Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA):

Chartered Investment joins the SSPA as a new partner member

The Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA) welcomes Chartered Investment as a new partner member. This brings the SSPA's network to a total of 52 members from the entire value chain, from issuers, trading platforms, and the buy-side to brokers and partners.

Zurich – 6 November 2024. Chartered Investment is a leading financial technology company in financial engineering. Chartered has several innovative technology platform solutions that address the full value chain of Structured Products. These include the OPUS securitization platform, the LIXX index platform, and the e-Sec tokenization platform.

Using its technologies, Chartered Investment can provide viable solutions for banks, insurers, financial service providers, asset managers, and other professional financial market participants as an independent provider of Capital Markets solutions. Chartered Investment operates globally, with local hubs in Germany, Luxembourg, Singapore, and Switzerland.

Joerg Bode, CEO at Chartered Investment Partners – Switzerland, on the company's new membership with the SSPA: “We are pleased to join the SSPA and strengthen our position within the Swiss Structured Products industry. We look forward to contributing our expertise and collaborating with other members of the Association to drive innovation and growth in the sector.”

The SSPA unites 52 members from all segments of the value chain

With a robust membership of 52, the SSPA advocates for Switzerland’s leading Structured Products players. SSPA President Georg von Wattenwyl welcomed the new partner member, saying: “We are delighted to have Chartered Investment join us. Their established partnerships, dedication to advancing infrastructure, and industry expertise bring invaluable benefits to our Association. We look forward to engaging with their team in our collaborative efforts.”
